THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE

By George Wilson

I can hardly believe it but it is November already. It will soon be time for family get togethers and turkey dinners. Winter will put a temporary end to the treasure hunting trips. Now that October has passed by we can look back at nearly three months of hard work.

From all indications and from the many favorable comments we received, the A.T.C.O. show was a success in every aspect. Dealers from around the western states were there, attendance by the public was good; and best of all lots of tokens changed hands. I even managed to make five new additions to my Tintic collection. That along with the meeting and talking with the many A.T.C.O. members made the show very enjoyable for me.

I want to personally thank the N.U.T.S. members who took the time to place exhibits, sit at the hospitality table, help with set up and take down and distribute flyers. These are the people who put forth the effort to make the show a success. One person in particular that I would like to thank is Bob Campbell.

Bob did much of the grounds work for the show. The A.T.C.O. show was the forth that Bob has had a direct hand in this year. As coordinator for the show he has once again shown that he is willing to go the extra mile for our organization.

Our October meeting was a good one. Ivan Oakson was the speaker. He shared some of his treasure hunting expertise with us, and showed off some of his finds. Thanks Ivan.

The October meeting was also the first for the clues to our latest treasure hunt. The treasure is worth over $100.00 and you will need to come to club meetings to get the clues.

The November meeting will be of special interest to those of you who have a yen to hunt for gold. Rick Farmer, owner of Hardrock Rick's, 4419 South 2950 East in Salt Lake City, has agreed to give us a demonstration on the fine art of gold panning.

Nominations of new officers will also be part of the November 20 meeting. Several members have already expressed an interest in offices, but positions of Secretary, Treasurer and Editor are still open. These are all important offices, worthy of your consideration. The office of Editor is essential. Having been temporary editor for four months, I think that I can safely say that it is the most time consuming, but also the most rewarding office in the club. The only requirement is that you be willing to devote your time and talent to our newsletter.

In order for our organization to continue we need the participation of the members. Election ballots will be sent to each of you shortly after the November meeting. Two amendments have been proposed, and you will be asked to vote on each of them as well as the officers.

The first amendment would change the nominations from November to October. This makes it possible to mail out the ballots with the November TOKEN HUNTER. This will give us more time to prepare the ballots and also reduce the mailing costs for the month by 1/3.

The second amendment defines the duties of the past president pertaining to the Coin and Token Show. Both of these changes are minor but important, and I suggest that they be passed by the membership. Please remember that your ballots must be returned by December 14 to be counted.

The December Meeting will be moved to the 30th of the month due to the holiday, so mark it on your calendar.

See you at the meeting
GEORGE

Finds of Fall

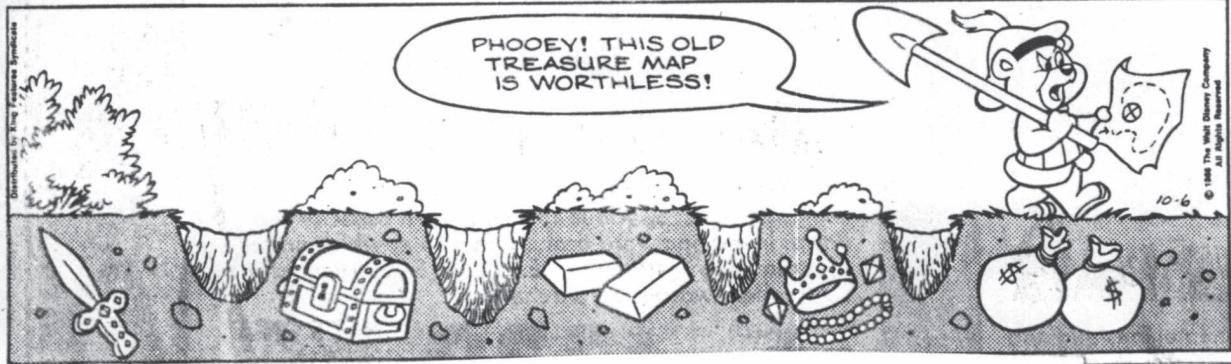

By Glen Sidwell

Fall is now upon us and most people are preparing for the long months of winter ahead. Club members with metal detectors are also taking advantage of these cooler months. As most THers know the wetter climate always allows for better coin, token and collectable finds. I myself have not had much of a chance to get out searching lately, but when I have my finds have been excellent.

Many of you have noticed that O.C. Tanner has purchased more property on Main Street and several older structures were demolished, leaving a large area to be detected. In the parking strip area I managed to find a Roosevelt dime, Mucurey dime, and an 1875-s Seated Liberty dime.

In the yards themselves I found several Indian Head pennies, Buffalo nickels, and a pin with the words "Covered Wagon Days" and the dates 1847-1931. My best find came at about my fifth stop at this area when I brought up a 1899 Barber half dollar in fine condition. When I showed this to the bulldozer driver he said a lot of people with detectors had been there and one had gone over the area of the find only $\frac{1}{2}$ hour before me. I considered myself very lucky!

DINNER! DINNER! DINNER! DINNER!

Sgt. James Bartley's will once again be the setting for our holiday dinner party. The date to circle is December 30. That's a Tuesday, and the festivities begin at 7 pm.

The cost is $8.80 per person, this includes tax and tip. There will be Ivan Oakson hit a lot on 2nd East and 250 South and came up with an English penny. Has anybody in the Club found an older coin than 1813?

Harold Franke dug a Seated Liberty dime and a token from the Comstock Bar this past month. Always check out the small spots you drive by and keep telling yourself that you will get to someday. At 7th West and 1st South there is a place that turned up three silver quarters (56-p, 63-d, 64-d) and a 64-d dime, all in one hole.

Another small spot that yielded a big find was the Abbey Carpet store on 21st South. My first silver dollar turned up. A 1925 Peace Dollar. On a recent weekend trip to Tooele I found a gold locket and a token from the Gold Label Inn, Evanston, Wyoming, good for 10¢ in trade.

This is the time of the year to look, the air is cool and the ground is moist, so if you have a detector and a little time, go and dig a little treasure.
